

Name _____

A VISIT TO THE FOREST

“What was that?” Jenny yelled as she sat straight up in her sleeping bag.

“It’s just an owl,” the other girls explained, trying to calm her.

“Oh, that _____ me,” she said.

The girls lay back down and soon as they were quiet and still, they _____ and _____. Morning came quickly. The sun in Jenny’s eyes caused her to _____.

“Good morning,” said Mrs. Fincher, the camp cook.

“The _____ of bacon is one of my favorite parts of summer camp,” Jenny said as her stomach _____.

As soon as breakfast was over, the girls set out on their nature hike. It wasn’t long before they spotted a mother bird with a _____ in its beak. She landed gently on the edge of the nest as the baby birds opened their _____.

As the girls continued on their walk, they came upon a rabbit. The little rabbit quickly _____ as it heard the _____.

“Oh, we scared that rabbit,” whispered Jenny.

STIMULUS/RESPONSE LAB DATA COLLECTION SHEET

How Do Pill Bugs Respond to Light?

	Number of Pill Bugs in the Light	Number of Pill Bugs in the Dark
Trial 1
Trial 2
Trial 3

What can you infer about the response of pill bugs to light?