Crushing it with Waring

Waring Commercial blends up success with Eastman Tritan™ copolyester.

Waring, as a household name, is what our grandmothers relied on for blending tasks. Known for introducing the first blender in America 75 years ago, the Waring brand remains an industry leader in professional-quality appliances. The classic Waring Commercial line continues as a powerhouse for manufacturing large-volume, high-performance blenders. Its heavy-duty Raptor™ features a 64-oz. container made with Tritan and an ultra-aggressive blade described as “ferocious” enough for everything from smoothies and frozen drinks to thick spreads and all types of food preparation. Drawing on decades of manufacturing expertise, Waring stays in the forefront with BPA-free, dishwasher-safe, and durable Tritan.

Waring Commercial offers a variety of blender sizes and styles featuring BPA-free Tritan jars for exceptional clarity and durability.
