EASTMAN

Versatility marries sustainability

Vacucraft uses BPA-free Eastman Tritan™ copolyester for innovative food storage solutions.

With a mission to promote a healthy and sustainable lifestyle, Vacucraft creates products that preserve your food and your money. In its 5-piece Versatile Vacuum Food Container Set made of Tritan, Vacucraft offers food preservation containers with a vacuum-sealed technology that allows food to be stored up to 5 times longer without sacrificing freshness, flavor, and nutritional value. From storing leftovers and reducing food waste to marinating steaks or packing picnic snacks, Vacucraft provides innovative food storage solutions. The containers are microwavable, dishwasher safe, and highly durable.

For more information on Eastman Tritan™ copolyester, visit www.eastman.com/tritan.

Made of BPA-free Tritan, Vacucraft Versatile Vacuum Food Container Set of 5 includes small round, medium round, small rectangle, large rectangle, and pump.
