EASTMAN

Claim your corn by color.

Fox Run uses Eastman Tritan™ copolyester in serving accessory.

Corn on the cob is an eye-catcher at any meal, but Pennsylvania-based Fox Run, a leading kitchenware manufacturer, jazzes up the culinary experience with its set of eight festive corncob holders. With threaded prongs that easily screw into corncobs, the handy utensils are made of BPA-free Tritan so they can easily be microwaved for convenient serving. The corn holders are dishwasher safe and come in their own little “crib” case for storing and keeping them from getting lost in the kitchen drawer. Whether for use at home or taking along for a cookout, Fox Run corn holders are a handy and fun serving accessory, adding plenty of color to the dining table.

For more information on Eastman Tritan™ copolyester, visit www.eastman.com/tritan.

Fox Run corncob holders, made of Tritan, provide easy serving and festive color to the dining experience.
